TAFT WANTS NEW STATUES

HAS GREAT HOPES OF NEXT SESSION OF CONGRESS AND HIS MESSAGE.

"ACTS, NOT DECLARATIONS"

President Says Ballinger-Pinchot Dispute Does Not Interfere With His Program—L. C. C. and Anti-Trust Laws.

Washington, Dec. 29.—"Acts, rather than declarations," President Taft is reported to have described recently in this terse way to callers his program for the conservation of natural resources. The President, it is said, has declared that when the present session of congress ends he will be able to point to the first practical conservation statutes ever placed upon the lawbooks of the Nation, as his answer to the criticism which has been directed toward the White House.

Without waiting for the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation, he will soon begin the preparation of his promised special message on conservation and he has received assurances from both houses of congress that, while some trouble may be expected in the lower branch, the legislation which the executive will suggest will be made into law before the spring adjournment.

Ballinger-Pinchot Case.

The president is represented as taking the position that there is nothing in the Ballinger-Pinchot dispute that has a bearing on his own legislative program and he will proceed regardless of it.

Special Message.

In the preparation of his special message the President will have the cooperation of Secretary Ballinger and Senator Nelson of Minnesota.

chairman of the Senate committee on public lands. It is asserted that in the constructive work of needed legislation the president has had to depend almost wholly upon Mr. Ballinger, who has been at work for several months on the draft of proposed statutes that will meet the intricacies of the vexed problem of practical conservation and embody the president's views of this important subject. These proposed new laws are ready to be submitted to the committees of the senate and house along with the special message, the preparation of which the president will begin as soon as he gets the messages on interstate commerce commission and anti-trust laws out of the way.

SEWER CONTRACT IS BIG THING FOR ADA

PAY ROLL OF $1500 A WEEK SPENT HERE.

Property Owners May Hook Onto Lateral Sewers Without Extra Charge.

The ditching machine brought here by Gikerson & Levy to do the sewer work will begin operations this afternoon in the alley between Ninth and Tenth streets.

The ditcher will cut to the depth of 18 feet, but the work here requires a cut of only 6 1-2 to 7 feet. The contractors say the work will be completed by February first and that a force of sixty men will be employed, one half day and one half night. From the location the ditcher is now it will move to Eighteenth street working in every alley en route. From west to east the work will be done from Cherry street to the right of way of the M. K. & T. railroad.

The contract for the sewer job is $25,000 and the weekly pay roll of the contractors is about $1500, practically all of it being spent in Ada.

Property owners may connect to the lateral sewer while it is progressing pass each lot and block in which they live without any charge by the contractors.

PRISON READY FOR C. W. MORSE

NEW TRIAL FOR BANKER IS REFUSED—COUNSEL SEES ANOTHER CHANCE.

MOVES FOR WRIT OF ERROR

Attorneys Application Made on the Ground That Jury Was Improperly Guarded and That Jurors Drank to Excess.

New York, Dec. 29.—Only a technicality now stands between Charles W. Morse, banker and one-time ice king, and the fifteen year sentence in the Federal prison at Atlanta. Judge Hough, in the United States circuit court, today denied his motion for a new trial, but close upon the heels of the decision, Martin W. Littleton, his counsel, announced that one more stand would be taken. Tomorrow he will move in the circuit court for a writ of error on Judge Hough's decision of today. If this is denied, Morse will begin the new year serving his sentence for violation of the national banking laws, the supreme court of the United States having previously refused to interfere in the case.

Mr. Littleton's recent application for a new trial for Morse was made on the ground that the jury was improperly guarded, and that some of the jurors drank to excess during the trial. With respect to this charge, the court holds that the fact that the jurors were in the custody of Secret Service men instead of regular deputy marshals was well known to both counsel and jurors.

The court also notes that more than a year has elapsed since Morse was convicted and sentenced, and that the judgment had been affirmed by the United States circuit court of appeals and a writ of certiorari had been denied by the United States Supreme court.

"So far as the record of these affidavits show," said Judge Hough's memorandum, there was nothing concealed or furtive about the appointment of these men, and it has not been urged that merely because they were not regularly on the Marshal's staff they were ineligible for selection.

As to the drinking charges, Judge Hough says:

"Prohibition must advance a good deal before a prisoner may claim to be entitled to a jury of teetotalers—in New York at all events."

Judge Hough points out that it was by direction of the court that the jurors be permitted to lead their usual lives, and that the affidavits submitted by Morse's counsel showed merely that during the entire trial only twenty bottles of liquor and some individual drinks had been consumed by the jury. And it is not pretended that any one was at all intoxicated, adds the court. All parties agreed, the memorandum continues, that no liquor be served to the jury after the case had been given to them.

The same juror who has deposed for the defendant as to the drinking habits of the jury, says the court, is by the defendant alleged to have been himself so sodden with drink as to be incapable of clear, cool and undisturbed judgment.

As to the charges that the jurors were permitted to read newspapers with hostile accounts of the trial, Judge Hough said:

This case was very dull; it took a long time to exhibit necessary preliminary facts; the newspaper accounts were incomplete and incorrect, but there is no evidence that they were hostile or biased, as even probably to affect the minds of men quite able to perceive their incompleteness and incorrectness. Unless all reading of daily journals by jurors is unlawful, this point requires no further consideration.

Mrs. Morse, who has remained constantly loyal to her husband throughout his fight for freedom, is greatly upset by the turn of affairs today. If he must serve his sentence, it is said that she probably will accompany him south.

Mr. Littleton's motion for a writ of error on Judge Hough's decision, however, acts as a temporary stay of execution.

Our business this fall has been far bigger than any season since we were in Ada. Doesn't it prove that our way of doing business and the honest merchandise we sell are the cause of that. Doesn't it indicate that the public like us and the principle of our dealing with the people and the values we offer are appreciated. We are selling good clothes, good values at right prices.

Since we are in Ada this was our first public sale inaugurated; the results were far greater than we anticipated and we are sure those who attended this sale got just as advertised.

The sale has left us with many odds and ends and while the season is nearly over we will continue the same sale prices on all our winter suits, over coats and boy's clothing, heavy weight underwear and all our shoes of odds and ends from $1.50 to $3.00 are included at sale prices.

FIRING 150 POUNDS.

That idea of the Delaware and Hudson railroad's of discharging its employees who weighed less than 150 pounds looks to be about the biggest piece of nonsense practiced for a long time. The railroad holds that men who weigh less than 150 pounds are physically too light to do the work of a "real" man and, with that view, nineteen employees were discharged and the announcement made that more would follow. Two-hundred pounds are preferable on this railroad.

Action physically as well as mentally is required of men in the railway service. To most anyone, common sense teaches that a 150-pound man "has it on" a man weighing 200 pounds several ways when it comes to action, and the smaller man has a body, as regards weight, which is as able as that possessed by the big man. We are glad to note, however, that the D. and H. is the only road entertaining such an idea and the following statements made by well known railroad men will be given preference in the minds of the people.

The general manager of the Orient Railway, Edward Dickinson, says the policy of the Eastern railway is absurd.

"If any of the lightweight employees of the Orient are worrying over their weight or lack of it," he said, "let them set their fears aside.
The Orient doesn't care what its employees weigh if they can do their work."

"But the idea that a man cannot do a normal day's work simply because he does not weigh 150 pounds is absurd. Edward H. Harriman, probably the most indefatigable worker the railroad world ever has known weighed only 110 pounds. Jay Gould was even smaller. My judgment would be that for physical labor the man weighing between 140 and 160 is more to be desired than a man weighing 180 to 210 pounds."

This is a Union Pacific official's comment:
"Let the Eastern railroads discharge their lightweight employees.
The Union Pacific can struggle along very efficiently with the 150-pounders. All we want is the man who can work. It makes no difference to us what his weight is."

CITIES AS MONEY SPENDERS.

The census bureau has made an interesting report on what it cost to run our municipalities. Starting out, it says that if the largest cities of the United States were to merge themselves into one great corporation they would need a working capital of $1,250,000,000, which is equivalent of the United States steel corporation's capital stock.

It further finds that maintaining a city government is 36 per cent of the total cost. During the year 1907 the 1508 cities which the report enumerates collected nearly $600,000, 000 in their own revenues and then borrowed more than $400,000,000 for improvement. During the same year after all maintenance and operation and interest upon debt were paid the cities had among them $122,000,000 for new work. This shows that an American city as a collective institution is far from a bankrupt.

Education is given as the costliest item of all, $109,000,000 being spent for learning while the item of least cost was recreation, which is charged at about $12,000,000.

In New York it costs $3.37 per capita to maintain the police force, and 49 cents in Oskosh.

A Delaware woman 113 years old does her own farming, which would indicate that her health is fairly good at the worst.

A Kansas boy was run over by an automobile. Had he been in Ada he would have had the same chance.

And there are many who will not get on the water wagon.

We presume Doctor Cook is still minus his mustache.

And 1909 leaves tomorrow.

TALK OF THE DAY.

A Choctaw Indian is going to buy a 240 mile railroad. For the last six years this Choctaw's income has been a cool million dollars a year. He is Lon C. Hill, Jr., of Harlingen, Texas, and he is doing great things for the lower Rio Grande region of the Lone Star state. It is there that he has made his fortune by the simple process of buying untitled lands at low prices and increasing their value many fold by irrigation. He was the first man to realize the possibilities of that territory. He had been educated for the law, and was living at the little town of Beville, about 200 miles north of Harlingen, when he had occasion eight years ago, to visit Brownsville. In order to reach it an overland trip by wagon had to be made over 150 miles of semi-desert country. He took careful note of the soil, and made up his mind that here was his chance. But he was stone broke. So he went about obtaining options on purchases of enormous tracts of land along the river, at prices ranging from $2 to $3 an acre. He borrowed enough to bind these options for two years. Mr. Hill is worth $6,000,000 and the money is still piling up. He is going to build a railroad of his own from Harlingen to San Antonio—240 miles—and he is doing it alone. This is a record for eight years' effort.—Leslie's Weekly.

THE OKLAHOMA PRESS.

As proof of Frederick's superiority over other towns in the state for a highly civilized and moral community we do not fear to compare the records of our police court with any of them. Furthermore, we have one of, if not the best city marshals in Oklahoma. He "hews" to his line of duty, and everybody looks alike.— dinance and that the mayor should see that it is rigidly enforced. The MATRIMONIAL MIX UP.

Four Persons and Unborn Child Tangled in Divorce Suit.

New York, Dec. 30.—Four persons and an unborn child are involved in one of the most complicated matrimonial tangles the Supreme Court has ever been asked to unravel.

In addition to the present action, brought by Robert F. Tyson, a broker in Wall Street, to have his marriage to Fay L. Tyson annulled, four divorces have been granted to the parties concerned. Joseph E. Benrimo, a playwright and actor, is one of the parties vitally interested.

Tyson, the court was informed, has been married three times and twice divorced. His third wife was the first wife of Benrimo, who got court permission to be made a defendant to the Tyson suit for annulment on the ground that Tyson's wife, who divorced Benrimo in 1903—now has interests at stake identical with his own.

This latter assertion is due to the fact that after Fay L. Benrimo got her divorce she immediately married Tyson, who now asserts she was never legally divorced from Benrimo, and Tyson has appealed to the supreme court to annul the marriage.

To further complicate the situation Benrimo has remarried. His present wife is known on the stage as Helen Robertson. She played leading parts in many Broadway productions, and last year was in "The Witching Hour." Her wedding to Benrimo occurred in London in July, 1906.

The information submitted to the court by Benrimo shows that he and his wife soon expect an heir, and that in case Tyson succeeds in breaking the divorce decree which separated Benrimo from his first wife, the present marriage will not be binding and the little heir will be under a cloud. Thus the divorced husband is making common cause with his first wife in order that the man who succeeded him in her affections may not be able to get rid of her.

Mrs. Tyson and her divorced husband, Benrimo, declare Tyson, "broke up their home." Benrimo says he was traveling when he learned his wife had started her suit, and that he was afterward informed Tyson had paid the attorney for getting the divorce decree.

Mrs. Tyson corroborates her former husband in this respect.

Landmark Dispute.

Grove, Dec. 30.—Erected more than forty years ago since which time it has been used as a place of worship by Methodists and Baptists, later appropriated for school purposes, the old church building near this city is somewhat out of the ordinary. The church people feel that they are being imposed on by the school district board, because the latter intends "using the house for school purposes. Sometime ago the church

Hoffman Honored.

Chandler, Dec. 30.—In a letter received Tuesday from Gen. Robert Shaw Oliver, assistant secretary of war, Col. Roy Hoffman of this city is informed that he has been appointed a member of the national board of rifle practice, in the place of Col.
Walter E. Coney of Georgia, whose term of service has expired.

This is one of the most important military boards in the service of the war department, consisting of five members and controlling practically all the work of the target practice of the United States army. The board formulates all rules governing national contests, has much to do with the distribution of funds for such purposes, and in time of war is next to the board of strategy. Col. Hoffman, besides being a member of this board, following his appointment, is also a member of the board of directors of the National Rifle association of America, and a member of the executive committee of the United States consisting of seven members.

The secretary of war has ordered Col. Hoffman to report in Washington on January 13.

Col. Hoffman is one of the foremost military men in Oklahoma. He was at the head of the state's forces in the recent Indian trouble in the eastern part of the state.

At Chandler, Col. Hoffman's home, is located the state rifle range, where recently in a contest the Oklahoma militia easily defeated the crack shots of the Missouri state militia in target practice.

Miss Susie Martin, a saleslady at the Surprise store, was unfortunate enough yesterday to leave her purse on the show case of the P. O. newsstand in the postoffice building. It contained a twenty dollar gold piece and some change, and Miss Martin has offered a liberal reward for its return to her at the Surprise store.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING THIS MORNING—BOY SHOT

TARGET SHOT FIRED BY JOE FOWLER HITS DICK REED.

Wound Is Made in Right Shoulder and Is Not Serious—One Boy 9, Other 14.

An accident which came very near being serious occurred this morning about eleven o'clock when Joe Fowler, 9 years old, stepson of D. A. Dorsey, shot Richard Reed, 14 years old, a son of W. J. Reed.

The shooting took place in the yard of D. H. Kiser, corner Main and Johnson streets. Young Fowler and Reed had gone to this residence, the former intending to buy a target rifle from Mrs. Kiser's son Fred. Joe was examining the gun and Richard was crouching near a post. As the latter arose, Joe fired a shot, it striking Richard in the right shoulder. The report was out that the shot lodged in the lung, but the attending physician stated that it did not.

After the shooting Mrs. Kiser attempted to persuade the boy to go into her house but instead he started for home. When arriving at the tracks of the Oklahoma Central he fell, and was carried to a nearby house where a physician was called.

Those seeing the affair agree that it was purely an accident.
After the accident young Fowler, somewhat frightened ran to advise Richard's father of the shooting, but Mr. Reed is not in the city.

We will close out at cost all our winter goods such as ladies' suits, cloaks, furs, fleeces, lined underwear for men, ladies' and children; wool shawls, sweaters, blankets, and heavy shoes. Millinery at your own price. Watch our big sale. Grand Leader.

Drama to Be Made School.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—The gospel of "Votes for Women" will be spread through Illinois by means of the drama. Three companies are on the point of being organized in Chicago for amateur performances of plays dealing with suffrage. They will be produced on an elaborate scale. Performers, managers, stage hands, and property boys are to be drawn from the ranks of the suffragist party exclusively. One of the companies is to be made up of students of the University of Chicago. There is a suffragist league, composed of students of that school, many of whom are undergraduates.

STATE TEACHERS' CONVENTION CONVENES

THOUSANDS OF INSTRUCTORS IN OKLAHOMA CITY.

Many Interesting Addresses Delivered on Opening Day—Standing Room Taken.

Oklahoma City, Dec. 30.—With every city or town of importance in the state represented, the attendance running in thousands, the Oklahoma educational association Wednesday opened its three days convention at the auditorium. At times even standing room at the big hall was at a premium either in the main auditorium or in the galleries, and yesterday afternoon, the crowds took possession of the stage filling all the seats provided.

Four interesting addresses were delivered yesterday afternoon. The addresses by Dr. George H. Bradford, chancellor of Epworth university, and Dr. James L. Hughes, of Toronto, Canada, were technical in a sense, while he addresses of Miss Kate Barnard and J. L. Brown had in them the spirit of the fight involving one of the state institutions.

Complains at Delay.

Miss Barnard in her address, complained of the delay which had been met in the building of the Boys' and Girls' Training school, between Pauls Valley and Wynnewood. Miss Barnard is the author of the bill which created the school, and in her judgment the delay is working to the serious disadvantage of the wayward children now lying in the jails of the country intimately associated with hardened criminals.

Failure to secure title to 40 acres of Indian land, Miss Barnard said, had caused the delay in getting the buildings of the schools under way. She stated that although she had used her influence and engaged the influence of others in an endeavor to get the matter straightened out at headquarters in Washington all efforts had been unavailing. Believing that there was such crying need for the institution in Oklahoma, where there is a large number of children held prisoners in the jails under the association of hardened criminals, Miss Barnard stated that she had taken steps to have the governor throw his influence toward changing the location of the school unless building operations were started soon after the meeting of the extra session of the legislature.

Takes Exceptions.

J. L. Brown, member of the board of control of the Pauls Valley school, who followed Miss Barnard on the program, took exceptions to the remarks of the state commissioner of charities and in an extended explanation showed why the matter of buildings had been delayed. He emphatically defended the matter of permitting the present location standing, saying the people of Pauls Valley were doing all in its power to hasten the negotiations for the Indian land, which he agreed had been the stumbling block in the board's way. He said the people of Pauls Valley had been put to many sacrifices to meet the state's requirement with regard to 400 acres of land to be used as campus and for school purposes and that it would be unjust to the people of that vicinity at this late hour to take the institution from them. He expressed the hope and belief that the Indian land stumbling block would be gotten around at an early date and that new buildings would be erected soon.

STEWART COMMITTED TO JAIL AFTER TRIAL

ALLEN MAN HELD WITHOUT BOND FOR KILLING GRAY.

Gray Went to Doctor's Office After Being Called the Second Time.

The preliminary trial of Dr. C. A. Stewart ended about four o'clock yesterday resulting in his commitment to jail without bond.

The evidence showed that a young fellow was knocked down the stairway of the building Stewart has his office in and that his hand was cut in the falling. He crossed the street to a pool hall where D. T. Gray and others were playing pool. He told Gray to go up stairs as he had been imposed on. This Gray refused to do and took the fellow to the rear of the building and advised him to drop the matter. Soon afterward a man unknown to the witness entered the pool hall and asked Gray to go upstairs to see what was wrong there. Jim Story and Gray went, and as they stepped into Dr. Stewart's office some one asked what the trouble was. Stewart stated he had the right to protect his office. Dr. Jones, who was present, then said a boy fell down stairs, but Stewart broke in and said he knocked the boy down. About this time, witness stated, Stewart said something with an oath and jerked his six-shooter. Witnesses couldn't distinguish what he said. Stewart hit Gray near eye with a pistol, Gray, grabbed a shot gun which was lying on a table near the center of the room. Jim Story got between the men and knocked the shot gun from Gray's hands and the pistol from Stewart. The latter fell, grabbed his six-shooter and fired. The shot went wild and he fired again. Witnesses said there was two or three seconds between the shots. After the first shot, Gray recovered the shot gun. The second shot hit him under the left nipple and he placed his hands over the wound and walked a few steps, then fell, dying in five to ten minutes.

WILL REBUILD SHOPS.

Report Sent Out From Headquarters to That Effect.

Shawnee, Okla., Dec. 28.—T. H. Beacon, general superintendent of the Rock Island railroad, announced here today that following the clearance of the wreckage, caused by the explosion Friday, work will be commenced on new shops which will cost $100,000. Supt. Beacon arrived today from Little Rock to assist in the removal of the debris.

Mrs. Samuel G. Cash, wife of one of the men injured by the explosion received word that her husband died in the general hospital at McAlester this afternoon. She fainted. Cash was a boilermaker, 36 years old. He was at the shops to deliver a letter to A. J. Kerr, one of the men killed instantly. Badly hurt, Cash organized rescue workmen and was removed only after he fell exhausted among the ruins.

William H. Taylor, another victim, is lying near death at the Shawnee hospital tonight. Taylor's skull is crushed and he sustained a broken right hip, crushed left leg, and several cuts about the head. Internal injuries may cause his death.

New Red Cross Plans.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.—The American Red Cross had taken the initiative in a new method of furnishing relief to those left destitute through some great disaster and if the present plan is followed it will be put into operation for the relief of the widows and orphans who have been left helpless by the great disaster last month at the Cherry mine.

The plan is to consolidate the funds of the Red Cross, the state of Illinois and the mine workers and place them in the hands of a board representing the three bodies. Under the direction of this board each family in Cherry will be visited and its condition as to its ability to support itself fully looked into. It is proposed to continue this relief until the members of the family are able to provide for the family support.

There are approximately 185 destitute families at Cherry with about 450 children under 16 years of age.

Brave Pastor.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Rev. W. F. Bostick, a post-graduate divinity student at the University of Chicago, probably will suffer amputation of both feet as the result of his courageous effort to walk 12 miles through a driving snow storm last Sunday night in order to reach the Christmas celebration of a little Baptist church at Yorkville.

The attending physician at Yorkville says there is but slight hope of saving Bostick's feet.

The pathetic features of the minister's misfortune lies in the fact that he might have been saved great suffering had he not been turned away from the door of a farmer's house at which he had applied for shelter and assistance after he had become exhausted in the deep snow and felt that he was freezing. The farmer believed him to be a tramp.

Carnegie Injured.

New York, Dec. 30.—Andrew Carnegie slipped on an icy spot while walking around the reservoir in Central Park late Monday and suffered a painful injury to his left knee. He was unable to be present at a dinner at his home, which he gave to Governor Hughes, President Butler, of Columbia University, and others, and he was also unable to attend the meeting of the American Historical association and American Economic society at Carnegie hall tonight.

At Mr. Carnegie's home it was said that his condition was not serious but that he had remained in his room on the advice of physicians.

Comet Seen.

New York, Dec. 30.—For the first time since Halley's Comet reached this section of the heavens on its present visit, it is visible to the naked eye in New York.

Prof. Eastman of the Columbia University has been studying the comet without the use of the telescope. It is in the northeast 20 degrees in length. For two weeks it will be visible and it can be plainly seen for several nights.

Shonts to Retire.

New York, Dec. 30.—Theodore Shonts is to retire from the presidency of the Interborough Rapid Transit company and the Interborough Metropolitan company Feb. 1 next, according to a report current in Wall street today but his secretary said there was nothing to the report which, however, remained persistent with the added detail that he was to be succeeded by C. H. Arkerr vice-president and general manager of the Southern Railway. Arkerr also denies the report.

LOOKS LIKE DUNN MAY ENTER

Persistent report from Guthrie and Oklahoma City indicate that Lee Cruce may withdraw from the gubernatorial race and that Jesse Dunn will enter the lists against Bill Murray.

Cruce, Dunn and Murray are attending the state teachers' meeting at Oklahoma City, and they and their friends are holding many close conferences which indicate that something important is brewing in a political way.

Agent and Money Gone.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—A sum said to amount to $20,000 and George A. Capron, cashier of the United States Express company at the Englewood branch office in this city, disappeared Christmas eve.

Capron and the money disappeared while six other employees were at work in the same room. Several valuable Christmas packages are also reported to be missing.

Stubbs After Gould.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 30.—"There are two things I want from President George J. Gould, of the Missouri Pacific, and two things I propose to get if there is power in the state to get them," said Governor Stubbs today to George R. Markham, a representative of President Gould, who had been called to Topeka by the governor.

"I demand to know how much money the financiers will get for floating this proposed $19,000,000 bond issue for the Missouri Pacific and I demand to know how much of the money realized from the sale of these bonds is to go into improvements of Kansas properties of the road."

The conference today followed an exchange of telegrams between Governor Stubbs and President George J. Gould, of the Missouri Pacific, which Governor Stubbs declared was unsatisfactory.

Two Killed in Crash.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Two men were killed today in a collision between a snowplow and a freight train on the Chicago & Northwestern near Northfield, Ill. The crash was due to a blinding snowstorm.

Autoress Is Jailed.

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Elizabeth Murray Newman, a magazine writer, charged with defrauding an automobile driver, was convicted today in the police court and sentenced to 60 days in jail and to pay a fine of $60, the extreme penalty. Mrs. Newman is well known in certain literary and social circles.

Tammany Reorganizes.

New York, Dec. 30.—The general committee of Tammany hall reorganized tonight for the year 1910. J. Sergeant Cram was re-elected chairman.

Mudge Is Considered.

New York, Dec. 30.—It was rumored here today that E. B. Thomas, president of the Lehigh Valley railroad company, has resigned, and that H. U. Mudge, president of the Rock Island, is being considered as successor.
